

Programmes Officer

Terms of Reference

About EPD

The European Partnership for Democracy (EPD) is a not-for-profit organisation with a global remit to support democracy, that brings together a network of 16 organisations specialising in the different parts of a democratic system. We work inside and outside Europe because we recognise that democracy is a universal aspiration and that the contemporary challenges and opportunities for democracy are global in scope. Our mission is to make a contribution to, and reinforce the impact of European support for democracy across the world.

We are looking for a Programmes Officer to join our team in January 2021 to support project management of several EPD projects (e.g. in Cabo Verde, Morocco, Myanmar and with the African Union). The projects vary in size and objective, but they share a focus on using (civic) technology to strengthen democracy albeit to different degrees. The position is available from January 2021 for an initial period of one year.

Accountabilities and key relationships

The Programmes Officer reports to the Programmes Coordinator (Brussels), and works in close cooperation with the Finance and Administration Manager (Brussels). The Programmes Officer will also have regular working relationships with the Policy Advisor (Madrid), other EPD staff in Brussels and the project managers within EPD's partner organisations.

Duties and responsibilities

Project relationships and partnerships

- Being the first point of contact on administrative and substantive matters with funders and EPD's partner organisations; resolving issues raised within the limits of authority of the role and referring as necessary to the Programmes Coordinator;
- Conducting regular visits to the countries, where EPD's projects are implemented; contributing to project goals;
- Ensuring that EPD's partner organisations and the project managers are provided with instructions to enable them to fulfil their operational and reporting responsibilities in accordance with contract procedures, contributing to overall coordination among implementing partners;
- Overseeing the development and utilisation of civic tech tools in EPD's projects;
- In co-operation with the Finance and Administration Manager and the Programmes Coordinator, contribute to maintaining up-to-date operational guidelines, procedures and tools.

Programme administration

- Drafting and/or reviewing financial and narrative reports in compliance with EPD's and fundings' requirements, and drawing to the attention of the Programmes Coordinator any issues arising from those reports;

- In co-operation with the Finance and Administration Manager, verifying project supporting documents, dealing with issues arising and following-up on communication with EPD's local partner organisations and project managers.

Programme development

- Coordinating and drafting programme and project funding bids, or elements of them, in conjunction with the Programmes Coordinator and EPD member organisations.

Communication and Advocacy

- Representing EPD at meetings with funders, partners and policy makers in Brussels, as required by the advocacy team and the Executive Director;
- In cooperation with the rest of the team, organising and taking part in advocacy activities, conferences, working meetings and other events organised by EPD;
- Providing input for EPD's social media and website on the various project activities at significant moments within the project cycle.

Records

- Maintaining appropriate records on EPD's activities and projects, in electronic and paper format;
- Culture of flexibility and improvement;
- Contributing to an environment of learning in EPD and the constant improvement of EPD's programme management procedures;
- Supporting in the organisation of EPD's internal working groups;
- Participating as a member of EPD's core team in the wider development of the organisation, sharing common tasks as required from time to time.

Requirements

- Professional with a minimum of 2 years of proven experience in project management (exceptional candidates with under 2 years of experience will also be considered);
- Previous experience in using civic technology to strengthen democracy is a strong asset;
- Knowledge of EU policy processes and advocacy is a strong asset;
- Proficiency in written and spoken English and French;
- Strong analytical skills and writing skills;
- Bachelor's degree in political science, international development or a related field of study.

Conditions and benefits

- An initial 1-year contract with entry-level salary;
- Lunch vouchers of a unit value of EUR 8,00 (personal contribution by the employee of EUR 1,09) will be granted for each day worked;
- Public transport costs from home to work will be reimbursed;

- Based in Brussels.

Application procedure

Interested candidates should send a CV and the application form to leonhemkemeyer@epd.eu by 7 January 2021 (23:59 CET). Please mention your name in the email heading. Name the application form as follows: "LAST NAME – FIRST NAME – Application EPD".

Interviews will take place in January 2021 with a potential with a start date in January or February 2021.

COVID-19: EPD is currently working from home, in order to ensure social distancing and health standards for all staff members. As of mid-January 2021, policies will be re-assessed – with a view to maintain possibilities for working remotely and/or physical office presence.